

A professional association can offer numerous advantages, like free legal advice, insurance, a retirement plan, workshops or training, and let us benefit from the recent changes to the

In Québec, we have professional associations for workers in cinema, television, graphic arts, performing arts and music. Why shouldn't we also benefit from an association that represents our rights as professionals of the moving image?

RIGHT TO ASSOCIATE

Labour law protects our right of association. Thus, anyone can join an association of their choice and participate in its activities [art 3] without being subject to any obstruction, restriction or reprimand.

This right is part of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

TOGETHER, let's defend our rights!
